Some Sweeping Reductions!

We know it to be greatly to your advantage, and believe it to be a good advertisement for us, to give you the benefit of price reductions while the goods are still seasonable and just when you need them. It's gift hunting time, too, and you'll find it to your profit to note the following tempting reductions:

Ten different styles of all wool 38-inch Plaid Dress Goods that sold from 50c to 65c have been reduced to 35c the yard. We have still on hand about forty Ladies' Trimmed Hats; we had several hundred; every one of 'em this season's creation, elegantly trimmed and finished. Your choice at 20% discount, or one-fifth off of the price. Fifteen styles of new Mercerized Silks that sell ordinarily at 35c have been reduced to 24c the yard. Our line of Fancy Taffeta Silks this season is by all odds the finest in this community. The stock still composes many of the choicest selections, mostly in single waist lengths only. For this week your choice of any of them at a discount of 10%. Don't miss this opportunity. Other reductions that we cannot mention here. All prices marked in plain figures.

Right Styles and Prices on Cloaks!

There is a decided style about this season's Jacket. You want either the short cut garment or the Automobile. Don't be led into the belief that the styles have not changed. Our stock contains nothing but new garments. You'll find here the right cut, the proper finish and the best values for the lowest prices. Jackets in black, blue, pearl and pastel, all lined throughout, from $3.95 to $16.50. Misses' garments from $1.50 to $8.50. Collarets and Capes from $1.25 to $15.

S. Judd.

She appoints Miss King executrix of the will without bond, and directs that no inventory be made of her estate.

MR. JOHN D. COBB.

Death the Result of Injuries From His Recent Fall.

The death of Mr. John D. Cobb occurred yesterday afternoon at his home on Houston avenue, Sixth Ward.

November 12th last Mr. Cobb with a fellow-workman was painting the Fleming turnpike bridge over Limestone, using a swinging scaffold; a defective knot gave way, letting one end of the scaffold down, and Mr. Cobb and his companion fell some distance. What was at first considered but a bruise soon developed symptoms which showed that the spine had been shattered. Paralysis of the lower limbs took place first, then of the brain, and in great agony the patient closed his earthly career.

Mr. Cobb was 41 years old. Nine years ago he married Miss Addie Scudder. Two children, a boy and a girl, now aged 7 and 2 years, respectively, were born to them. These, with four brothers and one sister and his aged mother he leaves to mourn his untimely end.

A devoted member of the Central Presbyterian Church, an earnest Odd-fellow, a good husband and a most affectionate, indulgent father he goes to his grave respected by all, loved by many and mourned for by not a few.

The funeral will take place Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from Mitchell's Chapel, Sixth Ward with services by the Rev. J. C. Molloy, D.D., assisted by the Rev. Edward Allen.

The interment will be in the Maysville Cemetery, with the honors of Oddfellowship, Mr. Cobb having been a member of Ringgold Lodge No. 27.

Flogging is still practiced in the English schools. The boys feel no sense of wounded personal honor in a sound thrashing, and prefer it to other forms of punishment. There is a school district in Reno county, Kan., in which there is a schoolhouse and a teacher, but not a solitary pupil. Miss Mary Scroggins, the teacher, opens school every morning and holds herself in readiness to instruct any children who may come, but she is the sole occupant of the building. There are plenty of children in the district, but they are of Catholic parentage and attend a parochial school.

We have now about three weeks left to sell our Winter Clothing. Whilst we have sold more goods during the year than ever before in the history of our business, the unusual mild weather we had this fall and winter finds us overloaded with Heavy Suits and Overcoats. We cannot afford to carry them over to next winter.

WE ARE GOING TO SELL THEM

"They will go," and not stand on the order of going. Quoting prices in newspapers is but a poor index to the public. You know what kind of merchandise we sell. Now come and see what reductions we will make during the month of December to unload our surplus.

The Reduction Sale Will Begin Dec. 1st.

And will continue as long as the public wants to buy better goods for less money than they can find elsewhere. Don't overlook our Shoes; they are the best in the country. Our line of John B. Stetson Hats and Manhattan Shirts (both lines direct from the manufacturers) command your most favorable consideration.
